Numb. 6000

The Daily Courant.

Friday, January 13. 1721.

Naples, December 24.

ON the 22d Instant, Cardinal Schrotenbach, our Viceroy, went with a numerous Retinue to the Wet-Dock to perform the Ceremony of placing the first Nail in a new Galley now on the Stocks, which when finished is designed to reinforce our Squadron: As soon as Mass was said, the Vessel was consecrated by Father Schobar, and by his Eminency's Order was named The Elizabeth. The same Day, the Cardinal made a publick Visit to the Count de Fuentes, a Grandee of Spain, who arrived here three Days ago from Milan, together with his Neice, who is to marry the Duke of Montelcone's third Son: Accordingly, the young Lady and her Uncle design to proceed from hence to Palermo to consummate the Nuptials. Advices from Rocca say, that the Bishop of Montemarano has lately consecrated a new Church dedicated there to the Holy Virgin, pursuant to the Will of the deceased Don Gio. Ravaschieri, Regent and Lieutenant of the Royal Chamber, who bequeathed a considerable Sum of Money for the building of that Church and for the Maintainance of several Ecclesiasticks.

Rome, Dec. 28. The Pope recovers daily from his late Indisposition; and on Sunday last a publick Chapel was held at the Quirinal as usual, but his Holiness was not there; nevertheless Sig. Andrea Cornaro, the new Ambassadour from Venice, was that Day in the Afternoon introduced to an Audience of the Pontiff, who received him with particular Marks of Esteem, and permitted him to kiss his Feet: The Ambassadour had a long Conference with his Holiness, and at his Return to the Ducal-Palace of St. Mark he was regaled by a noble Collation which the Pope had ordered to be prepared on that Occasion. On the 22d at Night Cardinal Barbarigo arrived here, but he designs to keep himself incognito till he has received the Cardinal-Hat from the Hands of the Pope; in the interim he has been visited by Cardinal Priuli, and Sig. Foscari, Auditor of the Rota. Cardinal Acquaviva having received one of the Standards which was taken from the Moors in the late Battle in Africa, has presented it to his Holiness by order from the King of Spain, together with a Letter wrote from that Monarch to the Pope: That Standard was exposed in Publick in the great Church upon Christmas-Day, and Te Deum was sung in Thanksgiving for the Successes obtained over the Infidels. An Italian Architect is arrived from Muscovy, where he has resided for several Years past; he brings a Commission from the Czar for engaging some of the best Artisans in these Parts to return with him to Muscovy: It is reported, that the Fryars of the Orders of St. Ignatius and St. Francis, who were some time ago forbid that Country by the Czar, are re-admitted to reside there; which News is very acceptable to the Pope. On the 23d Instant, Cardinal Acquaviva dispatched a Courier to Spain with the Bulls for the disposal of the Bishopricks proposed in the last Consistory, and for the levying of the Ecclesiastical Tenths in Consideration of the Expences of the War against the Moors.

Genoa, Dec. 28. On the 21st Instant a Maltese Ship of War sailed hence for Malta with 100000 Crowns on board, arising from the Revenues of the several Offices and Posts belonging to that Order in Piemont and Lombardy. The Neapolitan Ship of War called the Leopold is sailed from this Port for Naples. By a Ship lately arrived here from Cagliary in Sardinia, we are informed, that several Vessels are sailed from thence with Piemontese Troops on board, being designed to be posted behind the Barrier along the River Varo: No Quarter is allowed to Persons from Provence who shall presume to enter the Country about Nice; and three French Deserters being apprehended near the River Varo, were shot by Order of the Governour of that County.

Venice, Jan. 3. Upon New-Year's-Day the Doge, the Senate, and the Pope's Nuncio, went in a Body to hear Mass at the Cathedral Church of St. Mark, the Host having been exposed there to publick View for three Days, but was covered again this Night, after a solemn Procession had been made quite round the Church by the Nobility and Officers of the superiour Courts bearing lighted Tapers in their Hands: During the foresaid three Days, all the Theatres in the City were shut up, but To-morrow Operas and Comedies will be represented as before. The new Minister from Malta has ordered his Equipage to be got ready in order to make his Publick Entry with great Magnificence as soon as possible. The great Rains, together with the overflowing of the Rivers, have done considerable Damage to the inland Countries belonging to this State.

Ratisbon, Jan. 6. The Members of the Evangelical-Body have received Letters from M. Reck, their Minister at the Elector Palatine's Court, giving an Account of his having been admitted to an Audience of the Elector on the 29th of the last Month; as also that the Elector gave him a favourable Reception, with Assurances of his good Disposition towards redressing the Protestant Grievances, agreeably to the Request of the Evangelical Body; but that Minister observes the Catholick Party makes great Opposition to that Point, to which purpose they have contrived to draw up certain Grievances which they pretend have been imposed upon the Catholicks by the Protestants, and particularly in the Bishoprick of Worms.

Copenhagen, Jan. 7. The Queen has been much out of Order of late, and her Physitians have frequent Consults on that Occasion. It is reported, that our Ministers and those of Sweden have agreed that the Danish Garrison of Stralsund may Winter in the Island of Rugen, by reason of the Danger in transporting them to this Kingdom at this Season of the Year. Major General Timmer, in the Service of the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel, arrived here lately from Germany, on his Journey to the Court of Sweden, in Quality of Minister from that Prince. M. Westphalen, our Envoy at the Muscovite Court, is expected here from Petersbourg, but he will soon afterwards be sent to reside at some other Court.

Hanover, Jan. 10. It is reported, that the King of Denmark, at the Solicitation of several Persons of Quality, has been graciously pleased to pardon Count Stahl, who lately had the Misfortune to kill Admiral Tordinschoild in a Duel; and that his Majesty has revoked the Order he had given for apprehending the Count, who by that Means is now at Liberty to appear again in Publick.
